

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES AT MONA

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES AT MONA

Mona is a unique venue for your meeting or conference. You can choose our lovely function rooms, Eros and Thanatos, or the cinema inside the museum itself. It's pretty special.

Our chef, Philippe Leban, has a Michelin star-studded resume. He will prepare contemporary, French-inspired cuisine to your order.

EROS AND THANATOS

Eros and Thanatos have everything you need for a small or medium-sized meeting or conference. Control very up-to-date AV equipment with touch-screen panels.

Hire both rooms for $1000 per day

Hire one room for $750

Eros and Thanatos are separated by a soundproof, articulated screen. You can use both or one of them, in a U-shape, banquet, cocktail, boardroom or theatre style configuration.

	U-shape	Banquet	Cocktail	Boardroom	Theatre Style
Both	N/A	300	500	N/A	400
One	39	100	200	48	150

Each room has two data projectors and two 130” screens. You control them, and the lighting and blinds, with touch-screen panels. Each room also has integrated lecterns, roving microphones, a DVD player, and an iPod dock for music

CINEMA

You can also hire our cinema, which is inside the museum. It seats 63 (with some really nice couches). There’s the usual cinema stuff – an eight metre screen, motorised curtains, surround sound – as well as a PC, laptop input, microphones, lectern and wireless touch-screen panels to control it all.

Hire cinema for $2000

ACCOMMODATION

We have eight luxury pavilions on the bank of the Derwent River, named after Australian architects and artists. They feature art from the Mona collection.

Each has a kitchen, laundry, wine fridge, safe, phone, TV, and personal security camera. And bathrobes, of course.

There's wireless internet, and touch panels for climate, lighting, information and entertainment.

On the property is a heated infinity pool, as well as a sauna and a gym.
